Let me know. I don't mind reaching out informally to clarify the tracker and what is included in it. Ali called previously (July?) to ask for clarifications and it was a productive conversation.

Do you want to reach out to Summer first or follow-up after we send? Dahnish (or me) can call Ali

I was going to build on this July email from James

Subject: GAO materials - IRIS Activity Tracker Table and IRIS Targeted Efficiencies Presentation

Dear Summer and Alisa,

Following up on our July 9th discussion, we are providing additional files. The attached GAO materials include the IRIS Activity Tracker and IRIS Targeted Efficiencies presentation. The IRIS Activity Tracker provides dates/length of time data on the various stages for assessments currently underway or completed. The IRIS Targeted Efficiencies presentation was presented along with hard copy at our July 9th meeting and includes a typo correction on slide 10 (Green Text Box).

Please contact me if you have any questions.

Thanks,
-James

Tina, the NEW worksheet is the summary worksheet. The front worksheet is an edited version of what we originally sent to them.

OK, as long as it is consistent. Dahnish indicated it was only the edits. But it looks great.

The red font is the current resting status for the assessments, so I was going to keep that red

Looks great – the whole first tab is a new summary, right? So when you send it, you plan to make the red font normal?

Hi Kris/Tina/Mary – Attached to this email is the revised IRIS Activity Tracker. All the revisions are in red text. Let us know if this version is appropriate to move forward.

We'll have to clean up this version of the tracker, but that shouldn't take too long.

I think the only thing missing is the Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP) Other than that, I think it looks good.
